

COVID 19: Knowledge, Practices and Impact in South-Asia (Bangladesh Component)

Timeline: 16 April to 30 June 2020

Researchers: Local-Malay Kanti Mridha, Malabika Sarker, Abu Ahmed Shamim, Abu Abdullah Mohammad Hanif, Mehedi Hasan, Fahmida Akter, Md. Mokbul Hossain, Nushrat Jahan Umy International- John C Chambers, Franco Sassi, Sujeet Jha, Anuradhani Kasturiratne, Anjana Ranjit Mohan, Ian Goon, Kusuma Dian, Ananya Gupta

Brief Overview: The objectives of this research are: i) To determine the prevalence of flu-like symptoms; ii) To assess the knowledge and practices related to the prevention and control of COVID-19; iii) To determine the health, economic and social impact of COVID-19 associated measures e.g., lock-down, social distancing etc.

Methodology: Cross-sectional survey using quantitative approach. Data are being collected from all the divisions of Bangladesh.

Partners: BRAC James P Grant School of Public Health, Imperial College London

Donor: National Institute for Health Research, UK